

I am an Amateur Radio Operator heavily involved in Emergency Response Communications. The BPL issue is a very big problem for emergency communication systems. The potential disruption of our services should be of utmost concern. Emergency Communications are a major resource in the war on terror and should be a major concern, you should do everything possible to increase our radio spectrum, not endanger it like this. thanks you Mike..